Let's Dance

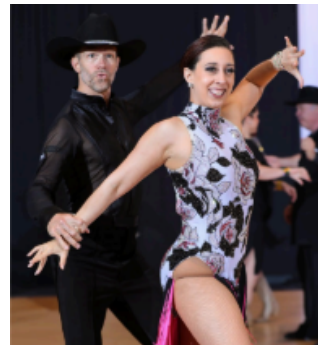

Dance Director | David Walkup

Welcome dancers! This month let's focus on dance etiquette. Etiquette is a part of the culture of social dancing and is often taken for granted. We all assume that since we feel like we are dancing fine, that others will perceive us the same way. Everyone assumes that advice applies to everyone but themselves, but are you sure? Here are a few reminders of good etiquette: Thank your partner after every dance; Be patient and encouraging with dancers of all experience levels; Respect everyone's comfort level and personal space; Practice good personal hygiene.

October 4: Russ & Souraya

NIGHT CLUB 2-STEP

Russ and Souraya each started out dancing in their hometown bars and began competing in the UCWDC in 2016 with different partners. They met at Paradise Country Dance Festival a couple years later when Russ missed the restart on a line dance during warmups. It's still a story they both enjoy telling to this day. Russ and Souraya found a synergy and connection that brought them to compete together in 2022. They quickly graduated to Division 2 in the UCWDC, where they regularly compete in Couples and Line Dance and are World Champions. Souraya also recently became the California State Champion in the Country Swing Strictly competition at The Edge Dance Event.

In addition to teaching at numerous regional and local events to students of all skill levels, they also happily run Country Remix SD, the largest country social dance night in Southern California, held at Dance HQ San Diego every 2nd, 4th, and 5th Friday. It is there that they pursue their passion for teaching dance, connecting with their community, and giving back to the dance world that has done so much for them over the years.

October 11:

INTERMEDIATE WEST COAST SWING

Larry has been a staple of the San Diego dance scene for years. Whether he's out social dancing across the city, serving on the Swing Club's Board of Directors or sharing his expertise at various venues, his passion for dance is always on display. Larry's lessons are known for being as informative as they are fun – don't miss out!!

October 18: Aidan Keith-Hynes ($10 extra)

INTERMEDIATE/ADVANCED WEST COAST SWING

Aidan Keith-Hynes is a Champion level West Coast Swing dancer, instructor, judge, and DJ based in San Diego. After a standout 2023 season as the top-ranking All-Star leader worldwide, he advanced to the Champion division. In addition to his active competitive career, Aidan teaches globally and co-directs JT Swing Teams in San Diego, where he emphasizes healthy, natural movement to help students develop comfortable and expressive dancing.

October 25 - NO DANCE

NOTES FROM US TO YOU

President | Larry Armstrong

SDSDC had a superb September and we're looking forward to an outstanding October. Our special functions last month were our 50's - 60's themed dance, Jim Bounds birthday celebration and performance, David and Trish's Hustle workshop, and Conor McClure's advanced WCS workshop. All good times!

October brings us cooler weather, and a cool NC2 lesson taught by Russ Bradchulis and Souraya Lorenz on the first Sunday and then a hot WCS workshop taught by Aidan Keith-Hynes on the third Sunday. Note that we moved the pro workshop to the third Sunday instead of the normal fourth Sunday. This is because the studio will be closed the weekend of the 25th, ergo there's no dance that Sunday. Mark it on your calendar so you don't accidentally show up to a closed studio.

Although Halloween is on the 31st, we will have our Halloween themed dance on November 1st. I'm expecting it to be spooky, hilarious, and glamorous. Come enjoy the fun!

Activities Director | Lisa Simmons

Mark your calendars for these upcoming special events:

- October 4 - October birthday celebration
 - October 25 - No Dance
 - November 1 - Halloween Costume party and birthday celebration
 - November 8 - Celebrating Veterans
 - November 21 - Special Event - Holiday Party
 - November 22 - Friendsgiving

Smile and Make Your Partner Feel Welcome

Social dancing is not just about technique. It is also about creating a positive experience with another person. A smile, a warm greeting, and a friendly attitude can immediately make your partner feel more comfortable. This is especially important when dancing with someone new or someone who may be nervous.

You do not have to be the best dancer in the room to be someone people enjoy dancing with. Often, the most memorable partners are the ones who are kind, patient, and encouraging. If a move does not work, laugh it off and keep going. If your partner is newer, keep the dance comfortable. A welcoming attitude helps build the kind of club culture people want to return to.

WHAT'S YOUR SPECIAL TALENT?

WE ARE ALWAYS LOOKING FOR PASSIONATE VOLUNTEERS TO JOIN THE TEAM. IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN HELPING OUT, PLEASE REACH OUT TO A BOARD MEMBER.

Updated!

San Diego Swing Dance Club Rules of Conduct

- The SDSDC does not tolerate any form of sexual harassment (verbal or physical).
- Teaching on the social dance floor is not appropriate. Even so called "friendly advice" regarding another's dancing can be hurtful.
- Our goal is to have both partners enjoy the dance. That means striving to make our dance partner feel safe and comfortable. If your partner is less advanced than you, dance to their skill level.
- Standing and talking on the dance floor takes away valuable dance space. Please socialize off the floor.
- Be considerate of other dancers. Remember, West Coast Swing is considered a slotted dance and that we all need to share the floor.
- It is important to try and stay in your own dance space and take smaller steps when necessary, especially when the floor is full.
- Dancing brings us into others' personal space; we all need to be aware of our personal hygiene.
- To avoid hurt feelings, if you refuse a dance for any reason, avoid accepting another invitation during the same song.
- Flirtation is a part of dancing, but sexually suggestive dancing is bad form.
- Dress appropriately with a reasonable level of decorum.
- Please bus your table and do not create additional work for our wonderful volunteers.
- When you have concerns, criticism or suggestions, please refrain from expressing these items directly toward other Club members, guests, guest dance instructors or guest DJ's at our Club. We are all emissaries of our goal of Good Will and request that these items be directed solely toward members of the Board of Directors so that they may be handled properly and within the policies of our Club and good taste.
