ARTICLE I
CORPORATION MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1.01:

The Corporation shall have three (3) classes of members only, (1) ANNUAL MEMBERS, (2) HONORARY MEMBERS, and (3) 24-HOUR MEMBERS, and the voting, interests, privileges, and other rights of each member shall be equal except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws.

(1) Annual Members shall be those persons of at least 21 years of age who have paid their annual dues in advance for a period of one (1) year, and who are otherwise qualified for full membership.

(2) Honorary Members shall be those persons who have been awarded honorary, lifetime memberships by the Board of Directors, at its discretion, by unanimous vote only, and retiring Club Presidents who have served no less than six (6) months and one (1) day in office. A member so honored shall be exempt from annual dues.

(3) 24-Hour Members shall be those persons who have paid one-time admission fees to a Club function, entitling them to participate in that event only.

SECTION 1.02:

Qualifications for Corporation Membership shall be as follows:

Annual dues must be paid in advance and are refundable only in special circumstances at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 1.03:

Membership in the Corporation shall be non-assessable. Should the Corporation incur obligations beyond its ability to pay, the members may not be assessed to satisfy debt balances.

SECTION 1.04:

Membership in the Corporation is nontransferable and nonassignable.

SECTION 1.05:

Annual dues for membership shall be in an amount determined by the Executive Board of Directors, and shall be payable in accordance with the Standing Rules as they apply to membership dues.

SECTION 1.06:

Members who fail to pay annual dues in accordance with the requirements of these Bylaws shall forfeit all rights and privileges pertaining to membership.

SECTION 1.07:

Membership in the Corporation shall terminate, or be revoked by an affirmative majority vote of the Executive Board of Directors, as follows:

(1) Upon receipt by the Board of Directors of a written resignation, or upon the death of a member.

(2) Upon failure by a member to pay his/her annual dues by the date of expiration. Member shall be notified of such expiration in writing no later than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date and allowed a 30-day grace period.

(3) For ungentlemanly or unladylike conduct at a club function so as to reflect discredit upon the club and the membership, based upon the severity of the infraction and/or upon counseling by the President, the behavior persists or subsequent complaints are received.

(4) For infractions or violations of Corporation Rules and Bylaws, or

(5) For any conduct considered detrimental to the best interests of the membership.

SECTION 1.08.-

Members who have had their membership revoked shall not be eligible for reinstatement as a member for a minimum of one (1) year, or for a longer period to be determined by the Executive Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II
GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 2.01:

No individual member, officer, or director shall have any interest or property rights in the assets of the Corporation or its name, shall not have the right to borrow or loan money or assets in the name of the Corporation, and shall not hold more than one (1) membership in the Corporation.

SECTION 2.02:

All members who perform services for or on behalf of the Corporation shall do so without compensation, recognizing that all such service is voluntary and places no obligation upon the Corporation except as follows:

(1) Corporation members who are vendors or contractors and who sell products or services that would, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, benefit the Club, may enter into negotiations with the Board of Directors for the sale of those products or services at a cost that is clearly equitable and of fair market value. Such circumstances will be rare, recognizing that such transactions may be necessary and that the product or service could not in good conscience be donated by the contractor.
